

OM NAMAH SIVAYA

Om Namah Shivaya is revered as one of the most potent mantras of Lord Shiva, often referred to as the Panchakshari Mantra. Lord Shiva, known by numerous names such as Viswanatha, Maheswara, Shankara, Trilochana, Rudra, Shambhu, and Hara, embodies various aspects of divinity. Many hold the belief that Lord Shiva is Swayambhu, signifying his divine origin independent of human birth.

Fruits and Prasadam distribution at Srisailam

Siva Gita Foundation recently organized a heartfelt event at Srisailam on the auspicious occasion of Mahashivaratri in 2022. The event centered around the distribution of fruits and prasadam, embodying the spirit of compassion and community service. Volunteers and members of the foundation came together to spread joy and nourishment among devotees and visitors to Srisailam, a sacred site revered for its deep spiritual significance. This initiative not only aimed to provide physical sustenance but also to foster a sense of unity and devotion among all participants, reflecting the core values of the Siva Gita Foundation in serving humanity with love and dedication. The event was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression of goodwill and generosity in the hearts of all involved.

Thanks to our sponsors

The Mahashivaratri fruits and prasadam distribution event at Srisailam in 2022 was generously sponsored by Crennotech Solutions Pvt Ltd from Hyderabad. Their support played a pivotal role in ensuring the event's success and widespread impact. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Crennotech Solutions for their contribution towards promoting community welfare and spiritual enrichment on this auspicious occasion. Their partnership exemplifies a commitment to service and unity in uplifting communities.

April 2, 2022 Ugadi Celebrations Lakshmi Kubera Yagam at Guntur (Andhra Pradesh)

Under the auspices of the Siva Gita Foundation, we successfully organized the Lakshmi Kubera Yagam with the divine blessings of Pujya Guru Shri Samavedam Shanmukha Sarma, aimed at the prosperity of all participants. A hundred couples participated in this sacred ritual with deep reverence, offering prayers for wealth and well-being. The yagashala was imbued with spiritual essence, enhanced by the guru's enlightening discourse.

Many farmers participated voluntarily and contributed towards the event's success, demonstrating their dedication. Teachers from the Vedic school in Srisailam conducted the yaga with meticulous care and precision.

Thanks to ISKCON

ISKCON graciously distributed prasadam during the proceedings, adding to the spiritual ambiance of the event held in Guntur.
